YOKE OF SLAVERY

Easter were it to hurl the rooted mountain from its base, than force the yoke of slavery upon men determined to be free.

Red Cross Workers Hear Reactivation of Unit

Called for the purpose of reactivating the Torrance branch of the American Red Cross, was a meeting held yesterday afternoon of former workers in the service organization. James Dancy, director of Red Cross branches, outlined plans to more than 20 former and future volunteer workers at the gathering in the Torrance Chamber of Commerce. "The present situation and the existing condition of world affairs makes it imperative to reorganize the Torrance branch," he said. Mrs. Gladys Weston, treasurer of the local branch, said it

Central Church To Commemorate Transfiguration

"Life Transfigured," is the topic for the sermon which Rev. U. S. Schauer will bring at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at the Central Evangelical United Brethren church. The message is suggested by the fact that this Sunday, Aug. 6, is observed as Transfiguration Sunday commemorating the transfiguration of Jesus on the Mount. Central Church will hold the first quarterly conference of the new church year Wednesday, Aug. 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the church. The Rev. Mr. Schauer said this week that he is expecting Rev. E. W. Matz, conference superintendent, to be present to conduct a worship service and preside over the business session.
